Article 18

1) Marks which have not been included in average marks:

   a) Letter mark (I - Incomplete) is assigned to students who, due to justifiable reasons, failed to complete a required component which is assessed within the course. The student who gets this letter mark must complete the pending components by the commencement of the next semester, at latest; otherwise, the letter mark “I” shall be automatically changed to the negative mark, or “F” (Failed).

   b) Letter mark (S - Satisfactory) is assigned to students who passed the examinations which do not accrue credit points, or whose written assignment has been accepted.

   c) Letter mark (U - Unsatisfactory) is assigned to students who failed to pass the course which do not accrue credit points.

   d) Letter mark (NA – Non-attendance) signifies that the student has not met the criteria of attendance to the course.

   e) Letter mark (W - Withdrawal) signifies that the student has withdrawn from the relevant course.

Final examination

Article 19

1) Final and makeup examinations are organized by the University.

2) The final examination, in accordance with the curricula and syllabi, is conducted during the last week of classes, or in the first week following the last week of classes.

3) Students who do not pass the final examinations are entitled to sit for the makeup examinations in the course they have failed at the end of the semester, or the study year.

4) If necessary, the course teacher shall organize consultations with students to assist students to prepare for the makeup examination in the period between the final and the makeup examination.

5) Makeup exams are organized in the period of 4 (four) weeks from the end of the final examinations in the winter or summer semester and students who have not sat for the final examination or have failed to achieve a total pass mark at the final examination are entitled for that exam.
V PROCEDURE OF WRITING THE FINAL PAPER

Article 20

1) The Second Study Cycle completes when all the necessary examinations have been passed, and when the final paper has been written and publically defended, in case that the same is stipulated by the study program.

2) The time of commencement of the final paper (master’s thesis) must be harmonized with the scope of the final paper so that the student may start the defense of the final paper by the end of the semester at latest, and by all means prior to the commencement of the enrollment period for the next study cycle.

Article 21

1) Teachers who are engaged in the teaching delivery in the Second Study Cycle propose to the Faculty Council or Study Council topics for the final papers.

2) In consultation with the teacher, the student may propose to the Faculty Council or Study Council the topic of the final paper, and may lodge a request to have previously accepted topic for the final paper assigned to him/her, which should include: a brief description of the topic, with an outline of the research goals, methods to be used and expected outcomes.

3) The student selects the topic of the final paper after the end of the first semester, or by the commencement of the second semester, at latest.

4) Exceptionally, in justifiable circumstances, the timeframes referred to in Clause 3 may be extended, based on the Faculty Council or Study Council decision.

5) The Faculty Council or Study Council establishes the form to lodge the topic of the final paper.

Article 22

1) At the same Faculty Council or Study Council session, at which the topic of the final paper is approved, the candidate is assigned a mentor who is selected from the body of the teachers in the specific scientific area/subject of the topic of the final paper.

2) Due to multidisciplinary character of the final paper topic in the Second Study Cycle, the student may be assigned more than one mentors.

Article 23

1) The Faculty Council or Study Council nominates the Committee for assessment of the final paper, which consists of three or five members, where at least two members are from the body of teachers selected for the course/specific scientific/artistic area in which the final paper is written, where one of the members is the candidate’s mentor.
2) If the Committee consist of three members, then the co-mentor cannot be the Committee member.

Article 24

1) The final paper may be submitted for evaluation and further procedure to the Committee for assessment of the final paper, under condition that the candidate has accrued all ECTS credit points required for study courses, and that all the financial and other obligations stipulated by the study program have been finalized.

2) Besides submitting the final paper for assessment, the candidate submits the mentor’s consent that the paper may be put in the assessment procedure.

Article 25

1) The Committee for assessment of the final paper submits a written report to the Faculty Council or Study Council within two months from their nomination, at latest. The period of the collective staff annual leave is not calculated in this timeframe.

2) The Committee referred to in Clause 1 of this Article may recommend in its report the following:
   - To accept the paper and that the candidate may commence with the defense of the paper;
   - To have the paper further elaborated and then submit for re-assessment;
   - To reject the paper.

Article 26

In case that the Committee suggests in its report that the paper be further elaborated, then the report on the elaborated final paper must be submitted by the Committee to the Faculty Council or Study Council within 30 days from the date of receipt of the further elaborated paper.

Article 27

Should the Committee in its report state that the paper is rejected, the candidate has the right to have a new topic assigned once more.
Article 28

1) Having accepted a positive assessment of the final paper, the Faculty Council or Study Council nominates the Committee for defense of the final paper (thesis), which consists of three or five members, who are, as a rule, the same members as in the Committee for assessment of the final paper, and appoints a deputy of the Committee member.

2) In the same session, the date of the defense of the final paper is set, which cannot be less than 15 (fifteen), nor more than three months from the date of the Faculty Council or Study Council session.

3) A Faculty authorized persons notifies the candidate about the date and venue for the defense of the final paper.

4) Notice about the defense of the final paper is posted on the notice board at the Faculty, and on the University website, at least seven days prior to the date set for the defense of the final paper.

Article 29

At the end of the public defense of the thesis, the Committee makes a decision by majority vote and announces the candidate’s results, which can be either:
- The candidate defended the thesis (accepted), or
- The candidate did not defend the thesis (rejected).

Article 30

1) Having successfully defended the final paper (the thesis), the candidate is required to have the thesis bound within 15 (fifteen) days at latest and deliver it to the Students’ Affairs Office in 5 (five) copies in hard copy, and 5 electronic copies (CDs or other appropriate media).

2) The form and the content of the Master’s thesis are set by a particular form stipulated by the Senate of the University.

Article 31

1) The curriculum and syllabus of the program may stipulate that the student of the Second Study Cycle be required to write an article, co-written with his/her mentor, and publish it in the proceedings of relevant international conferences, as a minimum requirement to commence the defense of the final paper.

2) The curriculum and the syllabus determine the number of ECTS credit points for each particular type of the above referred activities.
VI TERMINATION OF STUDENT'S STATUS

Article 32

Student’s status is terminated in the following circumstances:

a) Completion of studies;
b) Withdrawal from the University;
c) Expulsion from the University in the procedure and under conditions stipulated by law, or another appropriate University act;
d) When the student fails to complete the studies in the timeframe stipulated by law, the Statute, or University by-laws;
e) If the proposal for the final paper is rejected by the authorized Committee in two instances;
f) If the authorized Committee rejects, or does not accept the elaborated final paper;
g) In any other circumstances set by law, the Statute, or University by-laws.

VII DOCUMENTS AND STUDY RECORDS

Article 33

1) The student who has passed all the examinations stipulated by the study program of the Second Study Cycle in which he/she had enrolled, who has defended the final paper (if it is stipulated by the study program), and who has fulfilled all other obligations stipulated by the Statute of the University and this Book of Rules, is entitled to be awarded an appropriate degree, or diploma of the completed second study cycle study program.

2) The Diploma is obligatorily accompanied by the Diploma Supplement which provides more information about the level, nature, content, system, and study rules, as well as results achieved during the course of studies.

Article 34

1) Until the Diploma is officially awarded, a Certificate on completion of the Second Study Cycle is issued, stating that such document is of a temporary character.

2) The Senate of the University sets the date of the graduation ceremony officially announcing the completion of the Second Study Cycle.

Article 35

Students who defend their final paper have their particulars recorded in the main registry of the graduate students or holders of master’s degree.
VIII TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 36

In any other matters related to organization of studies, methods of teaching, students’ rights and obligations during the studies, which are not regulated by this Book of Rules, the Law, the rules of the Statute of the University, the First Study Cycle Study Rules, or other University by-laws shall apply.

Article 37

This Book of Rules enters into force on the date they are approved by the Board of Trustees.

Article 38
