JOINT BACHELOR'S PROGRAM COURSE CONTENTS

First Semester (IUS)

FALL

In the first semester (Fall), students are required to take 2 ELIT Program required courses – ELIT 100 and ELIT 101 worth 6 ECTS each, two University courses worth 6 ECTS each (offered from Table 1), one University course worth 3 ECTS (offered from Table 2), and one Foreign Language Elective course (from Table 3 – Bosnian students take Spoken Turkish I, and Turkish and other international students take Spoken Bosnian I course) worth 3 ECTS. The total number of ECTS in one semester is 30. Descriptions of all University, ELIT Program or Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS) elective courses, their aims and scopes and syllabi can be found on IUS website.

ELIT 100 ACADEMIC ENGLISH AND EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION (Required) 6 ECTS (2+1)

This course is designed to help students achieve success in their academic and professional lives by developing fundamental skills necessary for effective communication. The course deals with organizing academic presentations, writing essays, incorporating different types of sources into speeches and writings, and utilizing various communication strategies in formal and informal settings. Students will develop their skills and techniques through frequent assignments and class activities.

ELIT 101 INTRODUCTION TO LITERATURE (Required) 6 ECTS (2+1)

ELIT 101 course aims to introduce the students to the basic terms and concepts related to literature genres which are essential for the students' ability to understand and interpret literary works. The terms and concepts will be defined and explained to the students through sample texts. The students will have an opportunity to discuss and analyse selected texts individually and in small groups during in-class activities, and write analyses in form of essays applying key literary concepts and terminology. The course will improve the students' overall oral, writing and collaborative skills.

Second Semester (IUS)

SPRING

In the second semester (Spring), the students are required to take three ELIT Program required courses – ELIT200, EDU103 and ELT105, one University elective (offered from Table 1) worth 6 ECTS, one University elective (offered from Table 2) worth 3 ECTS and one Foreign Language elective (offered from Table 3, and the same conditions for selecting the foreign language apply as in the Fall semester), and the prerequisite is that the student had passed Foreign Language Elective I from the Fall semester. The total number of ECTS in one semester is 30.

ELIT200 CRITICAL READING AND WRITING (Required) 6 ECTS (2+1)

This course is designed to endow students with the skills essential to critically approach, analyze, and evaluate an array of realworld and literary texts across different genres, styles, and registers. The course focuses on critically reading and analyzing texts on contemporary issues, such as artificial intelligence, satire, social media, and discrimination, using a plethora of both academic and critical thinking skills such as skimming, scanning, analyzing, summarizing, inferring, inducing, deducing, reasoning, etc. Furthermore, the course aims at building students' argumentation skills in speech and writing - the former through students' presentations and/or speeches and the latter through writing argumentative essays.

EDU103 Introduction to Foreign Language Pedagogy (Required) 6 ECTS (3+0)

This course explores contemporary assumptions about teaching and learning. The course deals with a variety of topics such as educational philosophy, teaching and learning theory, developmental psychology, and changing society. The goal of the course is to develop a fundamental knowledge that can facilitate the student's progress in mastering educational approaches.

ELT105 Introduction to Linguistics (Required) 6 ECTS (2+1)

This course explores basic linguistic concepts. The course deals with a variety of topics such as language origins, the language-brain relationship, sounds, words, sentences and meaning. The goal of the course is to develop fundamental knowledge that can facilitate the student's progress in theoretical and applied linguistics.

.Third Semester (IUS)

FALL

In the Fall semester of the second year, the students are required to take two ELIT Program required courses – ELIT202 and ELT202 - worth 6 ECTS each, one Program elective course (offered from Tables 4, 5 or 6), and two Faculty elective courses (offered from Table 7) worth 6 ECTS each. Faculty elective courses can be taken from any program at FASS (offered in that semester), apart from ELIT Program. The total number of ECTS in one semester is 30.

Students who are planning to pursue a career in English language and literature should take ELIT Program elective courses from Tables 4 and 6.

If the prerequisite for taking the course is “junior standing”, that means that the student has to have successfully completed at least 105 ECTS units to take this course. Students cannot take courses which require “senior standing” because that means that the student has to have successfully completed at least 165 ECTS from previous courses. Since the Dual Diploma program considers that students take first four semesters at International University of Sarajevo, that means that students enrolled in this program cannot accrue the required number of ECTS to be eligible for “senior standing”.

ELIT202 SURVEY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE I (Required course) 6 ECTS (3+0)

The aim of this course is to give students a basic chronological survey of English literature, from its early beginnings to the end of the 18th Century. Students will learn about the social, political, historical, philosophical and cultural characteristics, and the prominent and important literary types, artists and works of each historical period. They will read excerpts from various literary works that characterize each period.

ELT202 LANGUAGE ACQUISITION (Required course) 6 ECTS (2+1)

The aim of this course is to introduce students to key terms, concepts and theories in first and second language acquisition; to provide students with a basic foundation of knowledge concerning the issues and challenges related to language learning; to explore how current research in language learning can be applied in the language classroom; to examine the stages and development of language learning with regards to planning, implementation and evaluation in the English language classroom; to make students aware of their personal language learning strategies and help them consider which language learning strategies they may employ as English language teachers.
