

ISLAM IN EUROPE CHALLENGES OF PLURALISM

Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina

12-22
AUGUST 2025

ADMISSION CRITERIA

The program is designed for graduate students from or based in Europe only, majoring in Islamic studies, humanities or social sciences and who are interested in developing their knowledge.

OPPORTUNITY FOR PARTICIPANTS

Presentation and discussion on particular research of participants in workshops.

REQUIREMENTS

50 hours of direct research and instruction in addition to 8 hours of student presentations.

AWARD

Certificate of attendance from the organizers.

VENUE

Sarajevo is a place where the student may experience the energy of its pluralistic spirit and history as well as empower themselves in their pursuit of knowledge. In addition to Sarajevo, participants will visit Srebrenica Memorial Center.

NOTES

- Halal food and accommodation (multi-bed rooms) for participants will be covered by the organizers.
- Participants will be offered to visit Mostar.
- Limited number of scholarships is available to cover travel expenses for the students who cannot find funding from other sources.
- Students should have their own health insurance coverage.

PLACES ARE LIMITED.
PROGRAM LANGUAGE IS ENGLISH.

The IIIT Bosnian Summer School “Islam in Europe: Challenges of Pluralism” offers unique tools to navigate our reality and world with its rapidly growing pluralistic essence. In order to successfully tackle the challenges in this context, the program offers academically rigorous and innovative analysis and solutions delivered by diverse and internationally acknowledged scholars and professors of exceptional faculty.

SPEAKERS (AMONG OTHERS)

Jasser Auda, Jonathan A.C. Brown, Ziauddin Sardar, Heba Raouf Ezzat, Omar H. Kasule, Jorgen S. Nielsen, Beddy Ebnou, Mustafa Cerić, Ahmet Alibašić, Shuruq Naguib, Ermin Sinanović and Dževada Garić

MAIN TOPICS

Islam in Europe, Qur'an and Gender, Approaching the Sunnah Today, Survey of Islamic History, Integration of Knowledge, Adjusting to Contemporary and Future Times, History and Objectives of Islamic Jurisprudence.

THOSE INTERESTED, AND COMPETENT IN ENGLISH, SHOULD COMPLETE AND SUBMIT THE

ONLINE APPLICATION FORM

APPLICATION DEADLINE
13 APRIL 2025

SELECTION RESULTS
27 APRIL 2025

BDG: ☎; D

TEL: +387 33 716 042 | MOBILE: +387 61 434 113 | EMAIL: summerschools@cns.ba

ORGANISED BY

International Institute of Islamic Thought
Institute for Epistemological Studies Europe, Brussels and Center for Advanced Studies, Sarajevo

IN COOPERATION WITH The Fairfax Institute, USA

HOSTED BY

International University of Sarajevo

