

6th International Youth Conference on Language, Literature and Education:

Joining Forces to Build a Better World

- LANGUAGE BEYOND BORDERS: YOUTH VOICES FOR INTERCULTURAL UNDERSTANDING -

The ELIT and ELT programs at the International University of Sarajevo invite students to participate in the 6th International Youth Conference on Language, Literature and Education, a platform dedicated to exploring the transformative role of language, literature, and education in fostering intercultural understanding and building a better world. Eligible applicants are students enrolled in the first, second or third study cycle, as well as young researchers who graduated within the past 3 years.

Date: 6 November 2026

Venue: International University of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina (online participation is also available)

Keynote speakers:

Asst. Prof. Dr. Melita Lemut Bajec, the University of Ljubljana, Slovenia: Every Language Counts: Rethinking Teaching in Multilingual and Multicultural Classrooms

Đermana Kurić, M.A., Research Associate, ERC BILQIS project, University of Galway, Ireland: How Studying Language Led me to International Policy and Research

Abstract submission deadline: 1 October 2026

Full paper submission: 31 December 2026

Submit your abstract to: lle26@ius.edu.ba

For abstract template and additional information, visit our website:

<https://elit.ius.edu.ba/en/youth-conference>

Partner universities:

