* Due to the reorganization carried out at the Faculty of Business and Administration and the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (unification of the study programs "Political Science" and "International Relations"), the programs that until the moment of the reorganization were organized at two different faculties, under the study names "Political Sciences" and "International Relations", do not enroll new students from 2023-2024 AY. In this sense, the reorganization includes the following:

a) the current study programs will come under the unique (unified) name "Political Sciences and International Relations", i.e. they will enroll students starting in 2023/24. study years;

b) the previous name "Department of International Relations and Public Administration" is harmonized and established as the parent department in relation to the study program from point a), and from now on it stands under the unique name "Department of Political and International Relations";

c) Enrolled students before the reorganization retain all rights arising from the name of the previous study programs;

d) joint study program in the field of political science and international relations in cooperation with Istanbul University (IÜ), Republic of Turkey, continues implementation under the parent (newly named) Department from point b).

SECTION THREE - RECTOR

Article 42

(Appointment of the Rector)

- (1) The procedure for appointment of a Rector is initiated by the Senate by bringing a decision on announcing a vacancy call for the appointment of a Rector.
- (2) The decision from paragraph (1) of this article contains the complete text of the vacancy call as well as the general and special criteria for the appointment of the rector, along with the provision on the appointment of a three-member Committee for conducting the vacancy call, which consists of one representative of the Senate who cannot be the person applying for the position of rector, one representative of the Founder and one member from among the law graduates at the University.
- (3) The Rector is appointed for a mandate period of four years with the possibility of another consecutive appointment.
- (4) The appointment of the Rector is based on the results of a public vacancy call that cannot be shorter than 15 days, and which is published on the University's website, respecting the deadline that allows the new Rector to be appointed before the end of the current Rector's mandate.
- (5) A teacher in the scientific teaching or artistic teaching title of full professor at the University can be appointed as the rector, with the obligation to submit an acceptance statement of the employment relationship establishment with the University.
- (6) In addition to the general legal requirements, the person applying for the position of rector is obliged to attach a positive opinion of the Founder on the submitted plan and vision of the University's development, as well as proof of knowledge of the English language, with the application for the vacancy call, otherwise he will be excluded from the vacancy procedure.
- (7) If a person applying for the vacancy does not obtain the Founder's opinion within the deadline until the vacancy call closes, it is obligatory to attach with the application the proof of the timely submission of the request for evaluation of the proposed development plan and vision to the Founder.
- (8) In the case referred to in paragraph (7) of this article, the Founder considers the proposed development plan and vision and submits the opinion to the University no later than 7 days after the closing of the vacancy call.
- (9) The Committee for conducting the vacancy for the appointment of the Rector is obliged, no later than 15 days after the deadline for submission of applications for the vacancy call, to review all applications, and to submit a report to the chairman of the Senate on their orderliness and timeliness, i.e. to compile a list of candidates who meet the formal legal requirements for the appointment, in order to schedule the appointment session.
- (10) After submitting the report and the list of candidates from paragraph (9) of this article, the chairman of the Senate schedules an appointment session at which the Rector is appointed by secret ballot with majority of the total number of Senate members.

- (11) If none of the candidates receives majority of the votes, a decision is made to cancel the vacancy call and announce a new vacancy call for the appointment of the Rector, and an acting Rector is appointed, in accordance with this Statute.
- (12) After the appointment of the Rector, the Senate will vote at the same session to authorize a member of the Senate who will sign the decision on the appointment of the Rector.
- (13) No later than seven days from the adoption of the decision on the appointment of the Rector, the member of the Senate from paragraph (12) of this article is obliged to sign the decision on the appointment of the Rector and forward the same to the legal department, which, through the general secretary, promptly delivers information about the appointment to the candidates registered for the vacancy. The legal department of the University submits the same decision to the Board of Trustees for the purpose of concluding an employment contract with the Rector of the University.
- (14) The Senate's decision on the appointment of the Rector is final, and legal proceedings against it may be initiated before the competent court in Sarajevo within 30 days from the date of receipt of the decision.
- (15) The sign of the Rector's honor is the Rector's toga (robe), whose form and content, that is, appearance, are determined by a general act brought by the Senate.

Article 43

(Appointment of acting Rector)

- (1) In case of unsuccessful appointment of the Rector, termination of the mandate due to resignation, early relieve of duty, as well as appointment of the Rector to some other function incompatible with the function of the Rector, the chairman of the Senate schedules a session where, without vacancy, for a period of no longer than six months, an acting Rector is appointed from among full-time or associate professors of the University who have concluded a work contract at the University and who meet the conditions for the appointment of the rector in accordance with the Statute.
- (2) The proposal for acting Rector, in terms of paragraph (1) of this article, can be made by any member of the Senate, and the appointment is made by secret ballot with a majority of the total number of Senate members with the right to vote.
- (3) The Senate, after the appointment of the acting Rector, authorizes the member of the Senate who signs the decision on the appointment of the acting Rector by voting at the same session.
- (4) Simultaneously with the appointment of the acting Rector, the Senate, at the same session, decides to re-announce the vacancy call for the appointment of the Rector.

Article 44

SECTION TWELVE – PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATES

Article 160

(Types of professional associates)

In order to train students to do practical and professional work and to help academic staff in the organization and realization of the teaching, scientific-research, artistic and artistic-research process, the University can, without vacancy call, engage the following professional associates:

- a) professional/artistic associates (methodologist, artistic associate, senior professional associate for language, independent artistic associate and accompanist),
- b) doctoral students,
- c) postdoctoral students,
- d) tutors, and
- e) experts from practice.

(Procedure for engagement of professional associate)

- (1) The need for engagement of a professional associate from Article 163 including what kind of professional associate is required, period of his/her engagement and courses for which engagement is needed, is established by the relevant Program Council and submitted to the Dean along with the CV of the proposed candidate for the position.

- (2) Dean decides on the proposal submitted by the Program Council or he/she can request additional information from the Program Council, program coordinator or the course holder.
- (3) Decision on engagement of a professional associate includes details such as type of professional associate, period of his/her engagement and courses for which engagement is approved.
- (4) Professional associate signs employment contract with the University for the period of engagement.

Article 162

(Conditions for engagement of a professional associate)

- (1) Professional associate must possess adequate knowledge, skills and competencies required for the relevant type of the engagement.
- (2) Minimum criterion for engagement is possessing at least first cycle degree in a relevant academic area and proficiency in English language.
- (3) Study program council can also propose specific requirements for positions including professional experience, teaching experience or additional qualifications.

Article 163

(Period for engagement of professional associate)

- (1) Professional associate is engaged for the period for which such engagement is needed.
- (2) Engagement periods can be for one semester, two semesters, academic year or in special circumstances for any other period if engagement is required for a specific period.
- (3) Conditions, engagement procedure and other issues related to the engagement of professional associates can be regulated in more detail by a general act.

Article 164

(Engagement of professional associates on the project)

An associate, doctoral student, postdoctoral student and expert can be engaged on a project for a certain period, without announcing a vacancy call, where they retain that status depending on the duration of the project and are financed from the project's fund.

PART ELEVEN – ENGAGEMENT OF ACADEMIC STAFF WITHOUT EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

SECTION ONE – TYPES OF ENGAGEMENT

Article 165

(Engagement of academic staff without employment contract)

- (1) The University can engage academic staff as a teacher from another domestic or foreign higher education institution without announcing a vacancy call, if no candidate has applied for the announced vacancy call for the appointment of a member of the academic staff or none of the candidates has been appointed according to the conducted vacancy call, until a new member of the academic staff is appointed in the vacancy process.
- (2) In order to realize the engagement referred to in paragraph (1) of this article, the competent council, on the proposal of dean, brings decision on the engagement in the relevant semester or academic year.
- (3) The name of the course and the course load of the appointed member of the academic staff must be indicated in the decision of the council.
- (4) The provisions of this article shall be applied analogously in case of consensual or unilateral termination of the employment contract, death, as well as other similar reasons, and no longer than one year from the occurrence of the circumstances.
- (5) Engagement from this article is carried out to the extent prescribed by Standards and Norms.

Article 166

(Engagement of a person who has an academic title)

- (1) If there is a determined teaching need, the University can engage a person with an academic title who is not employed within the higher education institution and who works in the real or public sector, provided that academic title of that member of the academic staff has not expired and with prior obtained consent of his employer.
- (2) The provision from paragraph (1) of this article also includes the case when the selected person obtained a title at the University but refused to establish an employment relationship.
- (3) The University does not have the obligation to obtain the consent of the employer from paragraph (1) of this article if at the time of engagement, the selected person is not in employment or is self-employed.
- (4) The final decision on the type of engagement of a member of the academic staff referred to in this article is made by the faculty council on the proposal of the faculty dean.

Article 167
(Experts from practice)

- (1) In order to acquaint students with scientific/artistic achievements with the application of scientific results in practice, practical work and other types of professional development, or for the purpose of conducting certain specific lectures, conducting foreign language classes, exercises, seminars and other forms of work, the faculty can, on the proposal of the course holder, engage a distinguished scientific worker, artist, or expert from practice to participate in the implementation of part of the teaching in the subject.
- (2) Based on the proposal of the course holder, the faculty council decides on the engagement of the persons mentioned in paragraph (1) of this article.
- (3) Engaged persons from paragraph (1) of this article are not, as a rule, course holders.

Article 168
(Member of academic staff elected to a public duty)

- (1) The University can engage a member of the academic staff who was appointed at the University or another higher education institution, i.e. elected to a public duty, as a course holder in the science-teaching/artistic-teaching process, for the duration of their public duty.
- (2) In the decision of the council by which the council gives consent for the engagement of a member of the academic staff from paragraph (1) of this article, it must be indicated that the member of the academic staff, for whom the consent is given, meets the legal requirements for engagement regarding the appointment to the academic title.
- (3) A member of the academic staff from paragraph (1) concludes a special contract on the implementation of teaching for a given semester, in accordance with the decision on teaching responsibilities.

Article 169
(Engagement of academic staff in other justified cases)

- (1) The University can in justified cases such as maternity leave, sick leave longer than six months, professional development, public duty of a member of the academic staff, suspension, as well as in other justified cases determined by the council in each specific case, for the performance of the teaching process, in during the period of absence, without announcing a vacancy and establishing an employment relationship, to engage a member of the academic staff who has a suitable academic title.
- (2) In the case referred to in paragraph (1) of this article, the faculty council, upon the proposal of the dean, ascertains relevant circumstances and makes a decision on the engagement of a member of the academic staff as a holder of the given course, according to the contract on the realization of classes in a specific course.

- (3) The dean who proposes the engagement of a member of the academic staff is obliged to submit appropriate evidence that the proposed teacher fulfills all the requirements regarding the appointment to the academic title.
- (4) In the decision of the council by which the council gives consent for the engagement of an academic staff member from another domestic or foreign higher education institution, it must be indicated that the academic staff member, for whom consent is given, meets the legal requirements for engagement regarding the appointment to the academic title.

Article 170

(Visiting professors)

- (1) The University can initiate a procedure for the temporary engagement of a teacher or researcher who comes from another domestic or foreign higher education institution as a visiting professor and who holds an academic title at the institution from which the visiting professor comes.
- (2) At the proposal of the competent faculty council, the Senate makes a decision on the appointment of a visiting professor, as a rule, in the title that person holds at the parent higher education institution (visiting full professor, visiting associate professor, visiting assistant professor, etc.).
- (3) In the case referred to in paragraph (2) of this article, the procedure, criteria and time of appointment that are applied for regular appointment and appointment to academic title will not be applied to visiting professors, but the assigned title will be assumed.
- (4) If the visiting professor obtains a satisfactory evaluation of his work by the University and students in the relevant year of engagement, the University can renew and extend such engagement.
- (5) The ratio of the number of visiting professors in classes and permanently employed academic staff is determined by Standards and norms.

(Awarding the title of Honorary Professor)

- (1) In exceptional cases, the University can employ or engage as its academic staff a person whose scientific or artistic work is characterized as regionally, Europeanly and globally significant (honorary staff), and who would contribute to the improvement of the quality and development of the higher education institution and society through their engagement.
- (2) The significance and level of the scientific or artistic work referred to in paragraph (1) of this article is determined by the Senate with consent of the Board of Trustees, based on a reasoned proposal for a decision of the competent faculty council.
- (3) The decision of the senate from paragraph (2) of this article awards the title of honorary professor (Honorary Professor) which, as a rule, does not represent a replacement for academic staff in teaching, but stating such a name serves exclusively the international scientific reputation and academic reference of the University.

PART TWELVE – RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE ACADEMIC STAFF

Article 172
